

Figure 1. Factors that influence quality of life of adults 60 years and older. *Community includes health and supportive services at local, state, and federal levels, and health professionals and researchers.