Market Overview and Development

Background: General Market Situation

- The German women's magazine market is highly extensive and fragmented. This presentation gives a general overview of the major segments.

- The market has been growing steadily for the last ten years, with an ever-increasing number of titles entering the market. Recent trends have included pocket-sized magazines, line extensions, celebrity titles, and further specialisation with regard to age or special content.

- It's a market in motion. The cycles of launches and closures have speeded up and a few titles have already become extinct. The challenge facing today's women's titles is to reassess the validity of today's titles in view of today's readers. Yet standing out from the crowd turns out vital to long-term survival. It seems that the ones that are differentiated and have kept their own identity are the ones that are the most successful.

Overview "Lifestyle"

Lifestyle for the confident, modern women of about 30:

- All topics, with focus on fashion and beauty and trends
- High-quality format and lifestyle focus for a younger readership than the established glossies
- Instyle: focused on the world of stars.
- Amica: recently repositioned as fashion and trend magazine, limited readership
- Maxi: focused on fashion and beauty, but also deals with other topics such as partnership and job.
- Glamour: formerly monthly, fortnightly since 2003, handbag-sized format, positioned as style guide for fashion, beauty, and entertainment, little depth
- WOMAN: fortnightly, couples the variety of topics and service provided by the classic magazines with a modern, upmarket format and the lifestyle focus that is characteristic for the monthlies.

High-quality lifestyle environment

Women's Magazines from Gruner + Jahr
BRIGITTE. Germany’s most widely-read quality women’s magazine.

For more than 50 years, BRIGITTE has accompanied German women through their lives. BRIGITTE is the undisputed market leader – serious and competent, not only in classic women's subjects, but also in areas like literature, society and medicine. Large-scale surveys, reports and reader activities all underscore the magazine's leading role.

BRIGITTE readers are mainly women between 20 and 49 years that not only expect excellent entertainment and quality but a strong value of benefit. To meet this expectations consistently in a new, surprising and sensual way – this is the accomplishment of our editors.

Brigitte's wide coverage and intensive level of reader closeness enable brand name communication that spans the generations.
BRIGITTE. Inside
What is it that makes the matchless success of Brigitte?

Brigitte has a feeling for the reader.
The largest (80-person) editorial staff of all German female magazines acts like a kind of "internal market research" to find out the topics and trends that really matter. This is much more than just a "gut feeling" but is based on unmatched experience and knowledge.

Brigitte is in dialogue with its readers.
Maximum proof of confidence: BRIGITTE's reader service answers over 100,000 reader letters seeking advice or information from every year – individually and confidentially. No other European magazine has such a close relationship to its readers. The readers read BRIGITTE quite critically. Every sentence is really read and there's always quite a reaction.

Brigitte is competent, reliable and open.
Most important fact is that our readers say: “Brigitte gets its content right.” This trust we have to keep on earning with every issue. Every Brigitte editor knows her field inside out. BRIGITTE has respect for every lifestyle of a woman. Also because these lifestyles can be very changeable – the suburban housewife with two children today might be the single mother with her own boutique in Berlin tomorrow.
The strength of BRIGITTE extends beyond the magazine

Examples for the enormous communications power of the BRIGITTE brandname

Audio books "Strong Voices":
The first books on CD in the BRIGITTE Edition were a great success: for weeks, the "Strong Voices" series had dominated the bestseller lists. To date, "Strong Voices" have over 1.5 million copies. Six of the "Strong Voices" were awarded a golden record. A continuation has been running since April 2006.

Brigitte Book Edition:
The Edition consists of 26 volumes that were released by BRIGITTE every two weeks until August 2005. The books are personal recommendations by Elke Heidenreich, Germany's most popular woman literature expert. The volumes appear in expensive hard-cover form with an integrated bookmark. 1.5 million copies of the first 10 volumes have already been sold.
BRIGITTE Woman. A trendsetter for a whole market

BRIGITTE Woman first appeared as a special issue, because women in the editorial staff had the feeling that, "we simply have to make such a magazine." Market researchers had always told us, "you can never make such a title, you can't make a magazine that says: for women aged over 40. The topic of age is taboo, that would never be a success." Well, we indeed made such a title and the result is a magazine that has been a sensational success. Nowadays, every publisher is talking about Best Agers and trying to develop an appropriate concept. But it first came from BRIGITTE."

Luxury brand awareness and money to spend:
The BRIGITTE WOMAN readers have refined tastes and take time to pursue their own interests.
BRIGITTE Woman. Inside
BRIGITTE Balance. The nicest way to find oneself.

BRIGITTE Balance is for the rush hour of life where one has to juggle between numerous options, and would like to be the master of his own life. To have a healthy life but to party as well. To enjoy both a career and a family.

BRIGITTE Balance is located where the many elements of modern life come together: between job and leisure, body and soul, fitness and relaxation, love and independence. Founded in 2004, 4 times a year.

BRIGITTE Balance readers are women aged 20 – 49 who are open-minded and full of curiosity, who also think about themselves – without having a guilty conscience.
WOMAN, the young lifestyle magazine among the classic fortnightlies, combines lifestyle with service in a unique, unmatched style. WOMAN represents a new generation of women:

Employed, around 30 years old, high purchasing power, active and opinion-forming in their personal sphere. Women who often juggle the challenges of job and a young family, and who have specific expectations regarding themselves and their surroundings.

Women that can otherwise only be reached by the monthly women’s magazines. But who, thanks to WOMAN’s fortnightly frequency, can now be reached much faster! And also in a higher circulation than most monthlies (always over 300,000 copies).

And: Gala is international.
GALA. Inside
A new style concept

Gala Style Guide

Every week, the latest fashion and beauty trends will be presented in GALA's "Style Guide" section, which will comprise a minimum of 20 pages. Every section will start off with the "Look of the Week."

GALA’s style concept reflects an exceptionally high fashion competence and underscores its unique position in the people magazine segment. The topic of beauty will of course also benefit from this new concept and layout. Fashion as well as beauty will be presented on an extremely high aesthetic level, and will meet the very high expectations that the readers have regarding these important areas of their lives!
In a class of its own. The GALA special issue

The new "STYLE GUIDE" from GALA:

An extensive guide through the latest trends in fashion, beauty and the art of living. Accurately and thoroughly researched, close to the VIPs, and with a high service and entertainment value for the cosmopolitan and trend-oriented reader. The new GALA Style Guide will be visually luxurious and presented.

Published two times a year.
EMOTION. Unique and different

Psychology magazines for women are already successfully established in France, Italy, Spain, the Netherlands, UK and the USA. Now this winning concept is came to Germany as well:

EMOTION is the only German magazine that is the only woman's magazine that looks at the areas of partnership, family, career and personality from a psychological point of view.

EMOTION stands out through an opulent optical language and stories of persons with whom the readers can readily identify. The articles are extensively researched, and backed up by expert opinions and service offers. The readers are well-off, intelligent women that are looking for more than the surface.

A coach for life of modern women.
EMOTION. Inside
ELTERN is an in-depth, comprehensive guide for young women at a period of great changes in their lives; it gives emotional support, builds confidence, contentment and a sense of achievement.

ELTERN provides its companionship for 40 years, now. From pregnancy to children aged three to four, it informs and advises its readers in all aspects of family life. In ELTERN, the reader finds out what "having a family" is all about, and how the years spent with a small child can be the most rewarding of all.

The market leader. ELTERN has the highest circulation and the highest coverage of all monthly parent’s magazines in Germany.
ELTERN. Inside
Focuses on one of today’s hottest topics.

Started September 2006, there is finally a magazine in Germany that is written especially for women who are interested in healthy living.

Good health affects all areas of modern living: Topics from body and soul, beauty and nutrition, prevention and cure, up to leisure pursuits, travel and family.

HEALTHY LIVING offers a pleasant atmosphere of well-being, coupled with a solid basis of scientifically-documented information on health.
